Invite you to take part in our

POP-UP FOODBANK

Collection point

On Saturday 29 September, you can help get 2012's Labour Party conference off to a fantastic start by joining us as we run Manchester's first pop-up Foodbank right in the heart of the city.

Britain is the seventh richest nation in the world, yet children are going to bed hungry at night because their parents can't afford to put food on tables. Last year, Trussell Trust fed 130,000 people and opened two new Foodbanks every week.

Come and visit us at Queen Victoria's statue in Piccadilly Gardens and help us raise awareness of the importance of Foodbanks around the country, find out more about Foodbanks in your home town, and learn what you could do to help address food poverty where you live.

At 2pm, join Mary Creagh, Shadow Secretary of State for the Environment, Food, and Rural Affairs, and hear her thoughts on food poverty in the UK and what we can do to combat it.

The Foodbank will be open from 12 noon until 6pm and will be accepting donations of items from the shopping list on the back of this page.

If you can spare the time to visit us, do bring something to our Foodbank check-in!

All donations will go to Salford Central Foodbank
